He is also highly pleased with the many improvements he saw in Sedalia. Bev is a team, within himself, and he has a host of friends in Sedalia who are always glad to see him.

Johnny Hannay's Scheme.

John Hannay, the retired editor of the Sedalia Gazette, says the Moberly Monitor, is about to buy an entire county in the Pan Handle of Texas. He expects to lay it off in town lots, build a belt line of railroad around it and start a large city in the center. He thinks there is millions in it.

He Knows the Robbers.

Ex-Policeman Bill Mason says there were only three men implicated in the Ottumwa train robbery and he can lay his hands on all of them. He has given the case considerable attention in the past two or three days, and the public need not be surprised if Bill gathers them in at an early hour. As ex-chief of police at Nashville, Ill., railroad detective for the Missouri Pacific, and also a member of the police force, he acquired a knowledge of crimes and criminals that is of inestimable value to him in cases like that at Ottumwa.

Shot at Burglars.

Two burglars attempted to gain an entrance to the residence of Dr. F. B. Fessler, about 11 o'clock Friday night, but were frightened away before they accomplished their purpose. The doctor happened to be at home and fired two shots at them, but neither took effect. Officer Jim Gossage and Constable Robert Ramsey obtained a description of the would-be burglars and hope to bring about their arrest.

SMITH'S SENSATION.

He Goes Out Driving with a Woman Other than His Wife and Trouble is to Pay.

A week ago this afternoon Mrs. Jack Smith, wife of the dairyman living north of Sedalia, went out for a ride, accompanied by her two little children and a boy who works on the farm.

They drove out in the country, and after driving a mile or so Mrs. Smith was surprised to see her husband's milk wagon standing in a hollow. She drove around it and coming up in front, found Mr. Smith and a woman whose name is unknown in a compromising position.

The woman jumped out and ran, when Smith whipped up and drove off in another direction.

In consequence of this little indiscretion on Mr. Smith's part, there are breakers ahead.

FOUND BY A FARMER.

Some of the Jewelry Stolen at Ottumwa Recovered Yesterday Forenoon.

There was another discovery yesterday in connection with the Ottumwa train robbery, and it would go to prove that the robbers did not return to Sedalia with their plunder, on the train that was held up, as many believed, or at least all of them did not.

At a point one and one half miles north of the scene of the robbery, yesterday forenoon a portion of the stolen jewelry was discovered and also a bundle of railroad papers that the bandits had carried away, evidently laboring under the belief that it was greenbacks. The booty was found by a farmer who resides in that vicinity and was turned over to the officers who are working on the case.

Thos. Furlong, chief of the secret service force on the Wahash road, who took hold of the Ottumwa case Thursday, arrived yesterday morning from Paris, Monroe county, and was closeted with Superintendent Clark until 10:45 a. m., when he went east.

Detective Tutt came in from Ottumwa yesterday afternoon and left at 4:30 o'clock for Lexington to spend Sunday with his family. He stated to a Bazaar reporter that he had withdrawn from the case, but then he is quite a joker and his statement must be taken with much allowance.

Detectives Dickey and De Long were seeking clues at points east of here, but not with any marked degree of success.

It is now one week since the robbery occurred, and the chances their capture are not as good as they were at that time.

Central Business College
Sedalia, Mo.

Agreat many new students are entering already, in order to prepare for the fall term, which opens September 8. Many are sending in money to pay their tuition in advance and numerous ones have visited the college to make arrangements as to boarding, etc. The school bids fair to have the most prosperous opening that it has ever had since it was founded.

Prof. Robbins returned from Colorado yesterday. He reports a pleasant and delightful trip.

Prof. W. T. Parks, a student of Central Business college, exhibited a grand display of penwork, such as flourishing, lettering, penmanship, automatic penmanship, etc., at the fair. His work took first premium and was admired by all who saw it. His work also took first premium at Moberly and Tipton fairs.

B. P. Richardson, a graduate of Central Business College in 1889, was at the college yesterday. He is Principal of the schools at Brownington, Mo., and has been traveling through the east for the past two months.

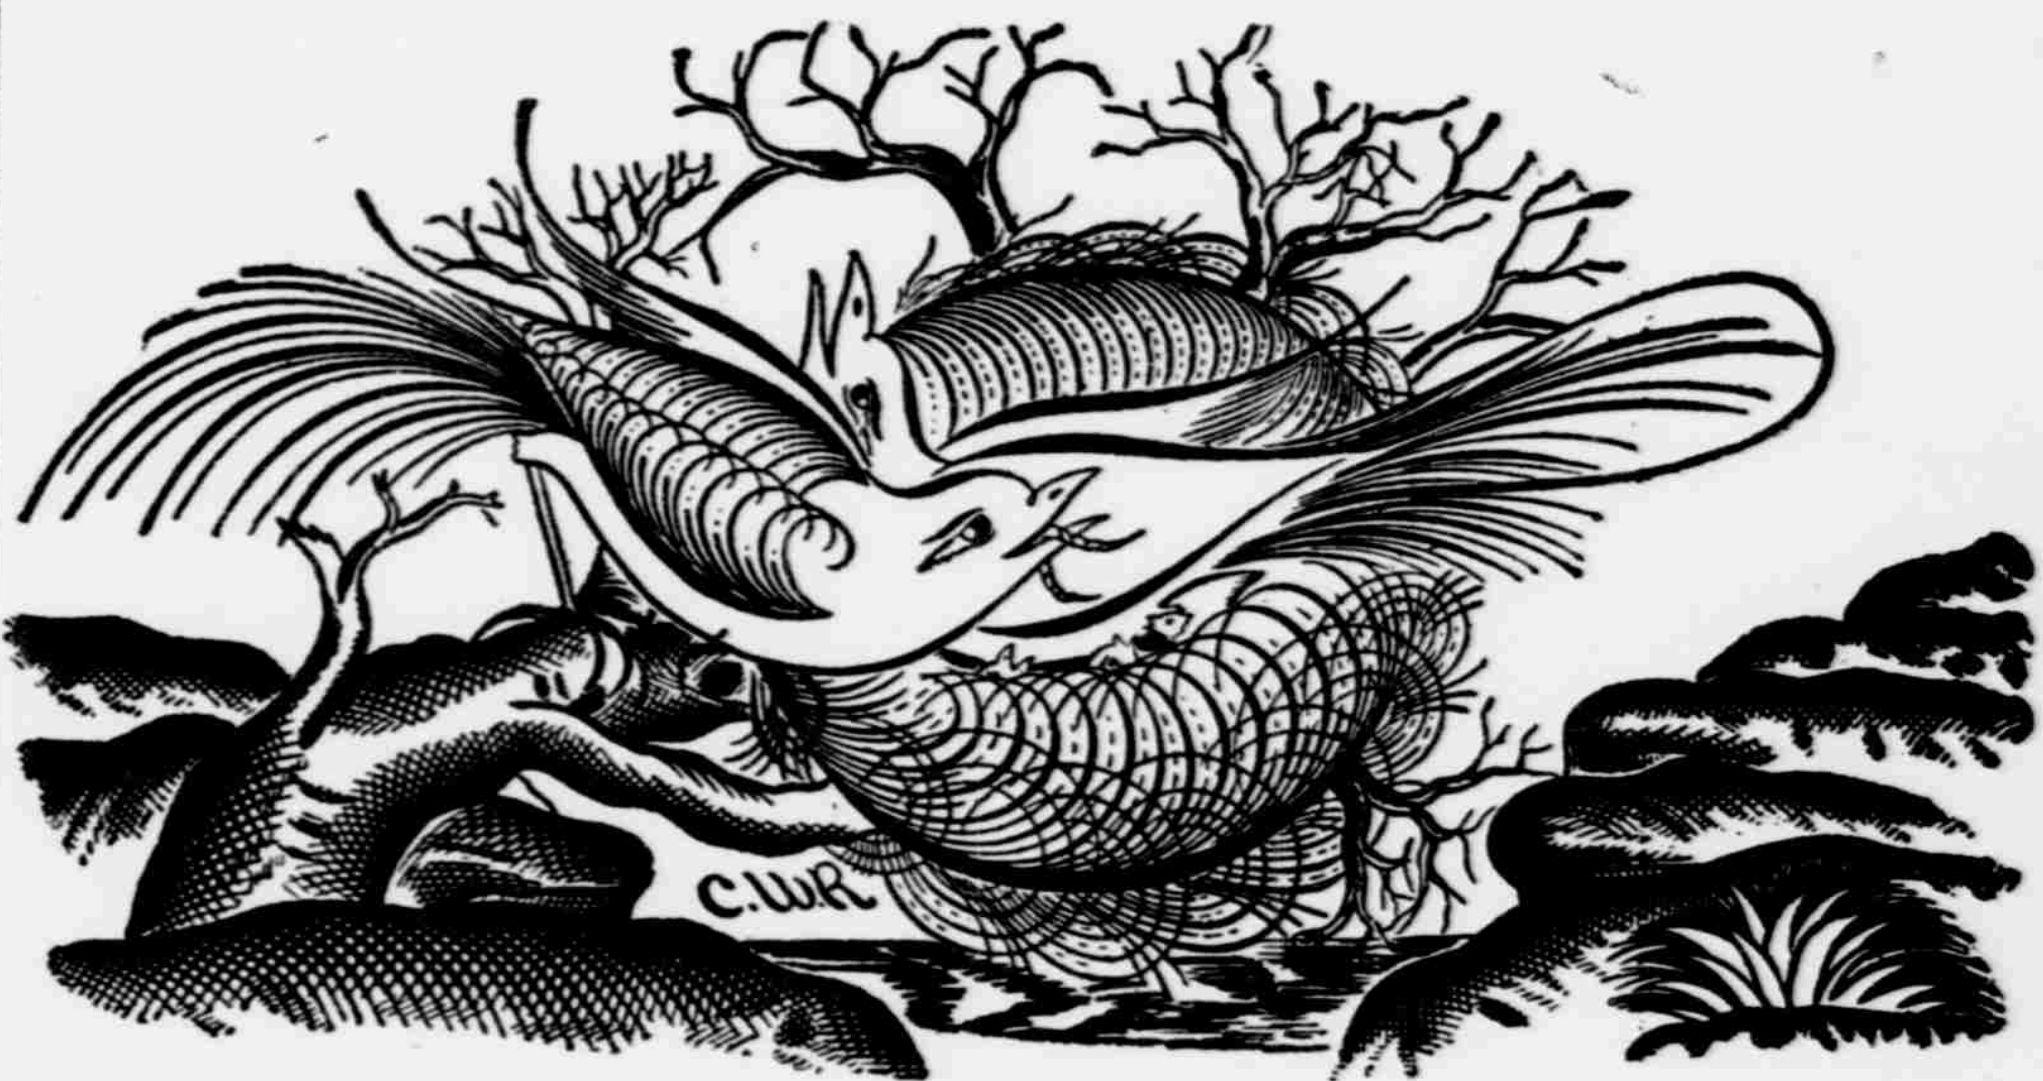

Some of the faculty, about six in number, went out on Flat Creek yesterday afternoon on a hunt. Their success is not known, but it is thought that they can furnish game of all kinds very cheap if sold in large quantities.

If anyone having furnished rooms to rent to students will call at College office, or write to C. W. Robbins before Sept. 4, they can most likely fill all their rooms. The names and addresses will be put on file and students sent to these places as they come in.

A small party, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Will Messerly, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wright, Miss Lizzie Klein, Mrs. Pickering of Windsor, Miss Nina Klein and others went to Forest Park yesterday evening and enjoyed a picnic luncheon.

PUBLIC SCHOOL FUNDS.

Clerk Mitchum Has Completed the Apportionment for State, County and Township.

County Clerk Thos. F. Mitchum has completed the apportionment of the state, county and township school funds for the ensuing school year, and placed the same to the credit of the one hundred districts in the county.

The apportionment is based upon the enumeration of school children as shown by the annual reports of the various district clerks, made to the county clerk May 15, 1890, and under which each child gets from $1.15 to $1.95, owing to the amount of township money to be distributed.

The state and county funds are apportioned per capita among the school children of the entire county, while the township funds are only apportioned among the townships entitled to same, which accounts for the different rates.

Below are the amounts apportioned: State funds..... $ 9,428 50

Not Guilty of Murder

The Ridley Thomas murder case was submitted to the jury at 9:10 o'clock Friday night, as the BAZOO of that day anticipated it would be, and after deliberating fifty minutes a verdict of not guilty was returned. The case is familiar to the readers of the BAZOO, as a history of it was presented last Sunday. The charge of having killed Mrs. Thomas will now be dismissed, as conviction would be impossible.

BILE BEANS are doing remarkably well in my section; they have given satisfaction to every person to whom I have sold them.

I have strong faith in the medicine myself and shall recommend it in every case of liver complaint that comes under my notice.
